

Use this form to change your membership category if you are a:

- constabulary employee becoming a Police employee
- Police employee becoming a constabulary employee
- retained member rejoining Police as a constabulary employee or Police employee.

Use the Leaving form if you are leaving Police and would like to leave your money in the scheme as a retained member.

Membership categories

- Constabulary employee – an employee of Police holding the office of constable (or a recruit in training at RNZPC to become a constabulary employee).
- Police employee – an employee of Police not holding the office of constable. This includes authorised officers.
- Retained member – a member who has previously left the service of Police and retained their savings in PSS.

See the website for more information about membership categories.

If you are becoming a constabulary employee

Member contributions are set at 7.5% of salary. Employer contributions (before tax) are 15.2% of salary. Complete a Voluntary contributions form at any time if you want to make additional voluntary contributions.

If you are becoming a Police employee

You have two options. You can participate in the scheme as:

- an optional entrant – employer contributions will be paid on your behalf, but these will come from within your existing total remuneration, or
- a savings contributor, making member contributions only.

The minimum contribution rates are detailed on the next page. Complete a Vary contributions form at any time if you want to make additional voluntary contributions.

Things you should know

Accessing your savings

Any savings you currently have invested in the scheme will become subject to the rules for your new category of membership. If you don't want this to happen, you need to withdraw your money before you submit this form.

- If you are a retained member, you can withdraw some or all of your savings by completing a Retained member withdrawal form.
- If you are a constabulary employee or Police employee, you can either:
 - make a partial withdrawal or apply for an in-service benefit (conditions apply – see the website for more information), or
 - withdraw from the scheme and claim your total benefit. Do this by completing a Leaving form. You can then rejoin the scheme under your new membership category by completing a membership form at the back of the product disclosure statement.

Partial withdrawals and in-service benefit

If you are currently a constabulary employee or a Police employee, any previous partial withdrawals or in-service benefit payment will be taken into account in determining your future entitlements to these benefits.

Financial advice from Mercer

Sometimes it helps to talk to an expert when making decisions about your super. PSS has engaged Mercer to provide a financial advice service to members. You can receive advice about anything to do with your savings in the scheme. There is no individual charge to you for this service. To arrange a time to talk, sign in to your account online and complete a call-back request form.
